Draft Conference Program

September 26 – 29, 2017

Novi Sad, Serbia

It is our pleasure to announce that the International Society for Health and Human Rights (ISHHR) will be hosting its 10th International Conference in the city of Novi Sad in Serbia, on the 26th-29th September 2017.

The title of the 2017 ISHHR Conference is “Mental health, mass people displacement and ethnic minorities” and it will focus on the displacement of communities as a result of conflict, the phenomenon of mass-traumatisation and the response of the European neighbourhood (particularly Central Europe) to the mass influx from the Middle East and North Africa (particularly as a result of the Syrian crisis). However, we will also welcome contributions from experts and speakers in Latin America, Africa and the Asia-Pacific region, as mass people displacement and migration is a global challenge.

This document was updated 12th of July, 2017.
